

Early Childhood Music Classes for Children with ASD

at The Royal
Conservatory School

Ages 4–7

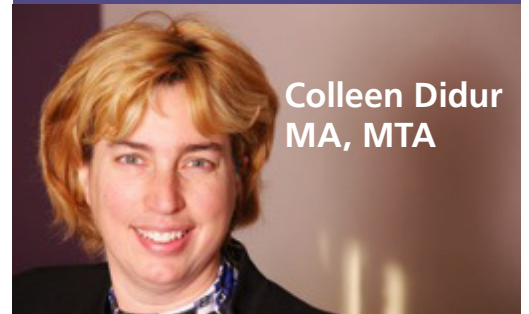

Give Your Child a Smart Start™ with The Royal Conservatory School.

Smart Start™ delivers unparalleled music education for young children with Autism. Weekly participation provides a solid music foundation, setting the stage for social development. Parent and child will play, sing and move together in an active program exposing them to a variety of musical experiences that are chosen to promote key areas of social development.

Classes run on Sunday mornings starting
September 9, 2018
