Looking to spread some extra holiday cheer? Let us know which family you'd like to help by calling or emailing Emily at (437) 997-3967 or emily.mahoney@cltoronto.ca Thank you for your generosity!

Family #1

This family works very hard to make both ends meet. Lilly is on ODSP and the father is employed and also does odd jobs to add to the family income. However they still struggle each month to pay the bills as rent is extraordinarily high for a family this size. Recently they had a king sized bed donated but it is on the floor and they do not have sheets and blankets that size.

Tracy is a single female who lives on her own. It is really hard for individuals who are on ODSP in January as they are given their checks early in December so often they have no food in January as they need to wait for the February check to come in. It is often a struggle for people during this time of year as they see all the happy families during this time of year and Tracy is on her own.

Holly, Arnold, Julia

Holly lives in a ONE bedroom market rent apartment with her partner Arnold. Her 2 daughters, a brother in law and grandson live with her. Holly and her daughters have medical concerns and Holly will be needing surgery in the future. Arnold has employment and Holly has a small amount from a disability pension but there are not enough funds to support her and her extended family. The apartment is crowed but they have hope that in the future the medical concerns will be resolved and a larger apartment or her daughter and family will be able to live independently. They are working hard to support each other but any donations will help to improve the quality of their lives. The basics are hard to obtain on a monthly basis and any support to this family in need would be so greatly appreciated.

Jerry (F), 16

Tessa is a resilient woman who lives in a market rent basement in Toronto's east end. Tessa has a job at Starbucks but unfortunately the high cost of rent in Toronto means that a large portion of her income goes to her rent. In Tessa's spare time she volunteers with the Salvation Army; providing meals to the homeless, volunteers at her church children's camp and is a scout leader; she joined the first day women could! Tessa and her long-time partner give whatever they can to their community and would benefit greatly from this generous program.

Liam & Lewis

Wish List Liam (M), 50+

Lewis (M), 50+

Liam & Lewis are a common law couple that live in a market rent apartment in the village. Liam & Lewis receive ODSP however; a large portion of their income is used to pay for accommodation. Liam & Lewis have both decided to get active this year and have joined the YMCA, attending regularly. Unfortunately the YMCA is costly and again affecting the income they receive. Liam is currently applying to programs to help him graduate high school which has been a lifelong goal for him. Liam & Lewis do not spend time with family during the holidays and would benefit greatly from this generous program.
